Description

Nested within the walls of a refined late 19th-century building and enveloped by the lush of Indro Montanelli Gardens, this distinguished residence offers a unique living experience. Set against a historically rich natural backdrop, designed by the renowned Piermarini architect.

A semi-habitable kitchen and service area adjoin the dining room and corner living room, creating cozy spaces for family gatherings. An office and six bedrooms with ensuite bathrooms provide ample space dedicated to family and guests.

Coffered ceilings over 4 unique architectural features, and exceptional brightness give this home a classic and elegant atmosphere. Two balconies overlook the Corso from above. The building is equally refined and rich, equipped with an elevator and concierge services throughout the day and recently decided to renovate all the facades. The property boasts a spacious cellar exclusive private parking area.
